NGN STX (a portmanteau of Nigerian Stocks) is for GenZs stashing on the Nigerian Stock Exchange and foreign markets.

We've gathered a hive of financial savvy Nigerians with storytelling, captivating visuals and by breaking the hard-to-tell news first.

NUMBERS?

With over 1m+ views on Twitter since we started in February 2025, we have gained the trust of over 5k followers on Twitter and a close niche readership of about 2k on our website each time we publish essays. We are growing quickly!

People at home and abroad are following the money and love our way of telling them how it's moving; at least around the Nigerian Stock Exchange.

NO. PEOPLE!

Our numbers are real humans aging majorly from 24 to 44.

They consist of retail investors, institutional investors, stock market enthusiasts, financial analysts, investment bankers, fintech founders, personal finance bloggers, capital market regulators, venture capitalists, university students studying finance/economics, diaspora Nigerians tracking investment opportunities, and policy researchers focused on the Nigerian economy. This is open data on our Twitter.

WORK:

While we've never hosted any ad on NGN STX, we know how it should be with our niche. Not ads of several brands littered everywhere. We want to be the growth partner of one brand at a time. By providing exclusive access over a given time, we focus of our hive entirely around what you do.

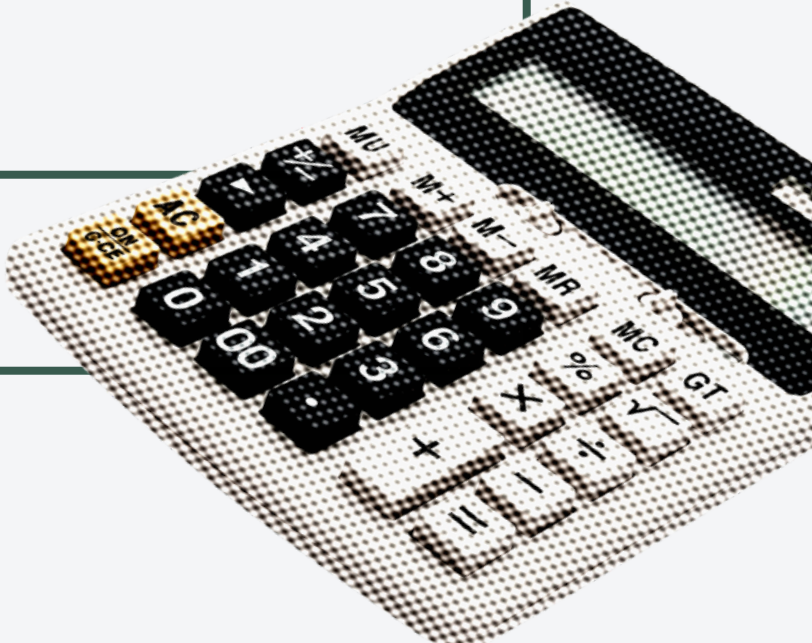

We are growing fast and people are making decisions under our comments and from our mini WhatsApp community where we can even restrict new membership to users who have made their first transaction on your app. Be the gate!

This block is yours based on what you want. No rules set in stone. Let's paint it with you.
